Nature of Contract: (Briefly describe the general terms of the contract)

In accordance with the request for applications from the California Office of Criminal Justice Planning under the 2003 Juvenile Accountability Incentive Block Grant, fourteen San Bernardino County cities receiving allocations under this federal formula block grant and the County of San Bernardino plan to contribute their allocations, totaling $471,616, to form a Regional Juvenile Crime Enforcement Coalition. The Coalition recommends using the funding to continue the placement of seven probation officers on school campuses, and to continue to fund a juvenile court hearing officer and legal procedures clerk to adjudicate an increasing number of juvenile cases.

The total cost for this program is projected to be $742,424 with the 10% required program match of $52,402 and an additional $218,408 being provided from the seven participating school districts, $270,808 total.
